

10 TIPS

For making the most of your time between voice lessons.

1

Schedule your practice time.

Consistent, regular practice = steady, measurable progress

2

Eliminate distractions & clutter.

Make your practice area a sacred space.
Beautify, personalize.

3

Keep a practice journal.

List weekly goals, makes notes on progress and struggles.

4

Assume that tools you learn in lessons should be applied in practice time.

5

Start over every day.

Practice sessions do not start where you ended the previous day.

6

Warm up gradually.

Never force the voice into suppleness and pliability.

7

Break your music up into sections.

Skip the parts you know well and focus on the areas that need the most attention.

8

Find ways to practice without singing.

Study rhythm, language, history, character, set goals, update resume.

9

Divide practice time throughout the day.

Set limits for time spent singing. Use 15-30 min in the AM and another in the PM.

10

Memorize your music deliberately and early.

Review your words often. Practice until you can't get it wrong.